FANTASY TOKEN · BRAND KIT · V1.0

Token tiles with a wink.

Fantasy Token is a pick-and-win game for crypto fans. The mark is two stacked token tiles — a confident F on a roasted-chili red, with a small paper T snapping into the corner. Editorial, tactile, fun. Not a finance app pretending to be a casino. Not a casino pretending to be finance.

01 · Mark

The primary mark

F-tile sits forward; T-tile snaps into the lower-right corner. The drop-shadow is solid, not blurred — physical, not photorealistic.

Construction

GRID	256 × 256 viewBox, tiles aligned to 6px padding
BIG TILE	198 × 198 · radius `37` · stroke `8`
SMALL TILE	88 × 88 · radius `19` · stroke `8`
SHADOW	Same shape, offset `+10, +10`, fill ink. No blur.
LETTERFORMS	Custom geometric — not Inter. F is `54×80`, T is `37×36`. Both built on a 1-unit module.
OPTICAL	F is centered on the big tile by glyph-bbox, not metrics. T is stem-centered.

02 · Variants

One mark, four ways

Pick the variant by the surface you're sitting on, not the mood you're in.

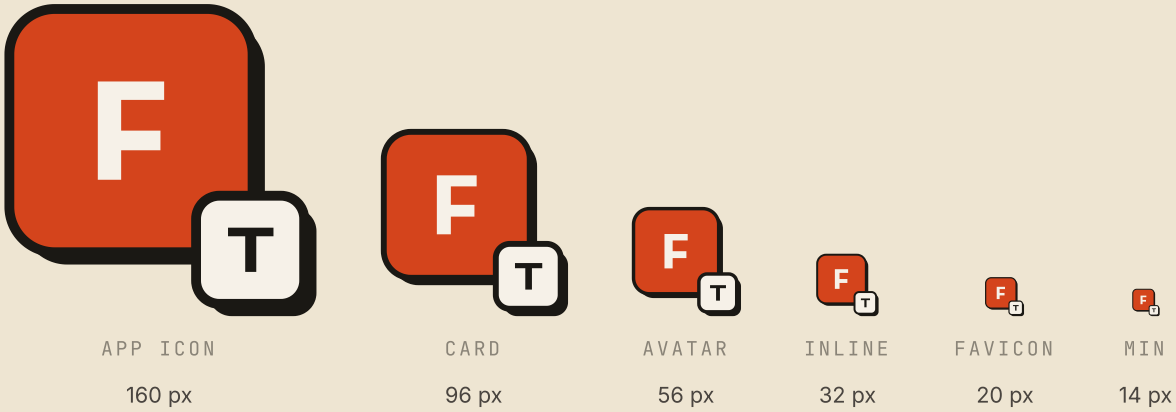
03 · Scale

Holds at 16px

The T-tile is the first thing to disappear at small sizes — that's intentional. Below 14px, switch to the F-tile alone.



04 · Lockups

Mark + name

Use the lockup when the mark alone can't carry the brand — first-touch surfaces, top-of-page headers, signage.

05 · Color

Paper, ink, one hot accent

Eight tokens. Accent is for one-per-screen moments — the FAB, the win state, the streak. Note is rare, used for highlights.

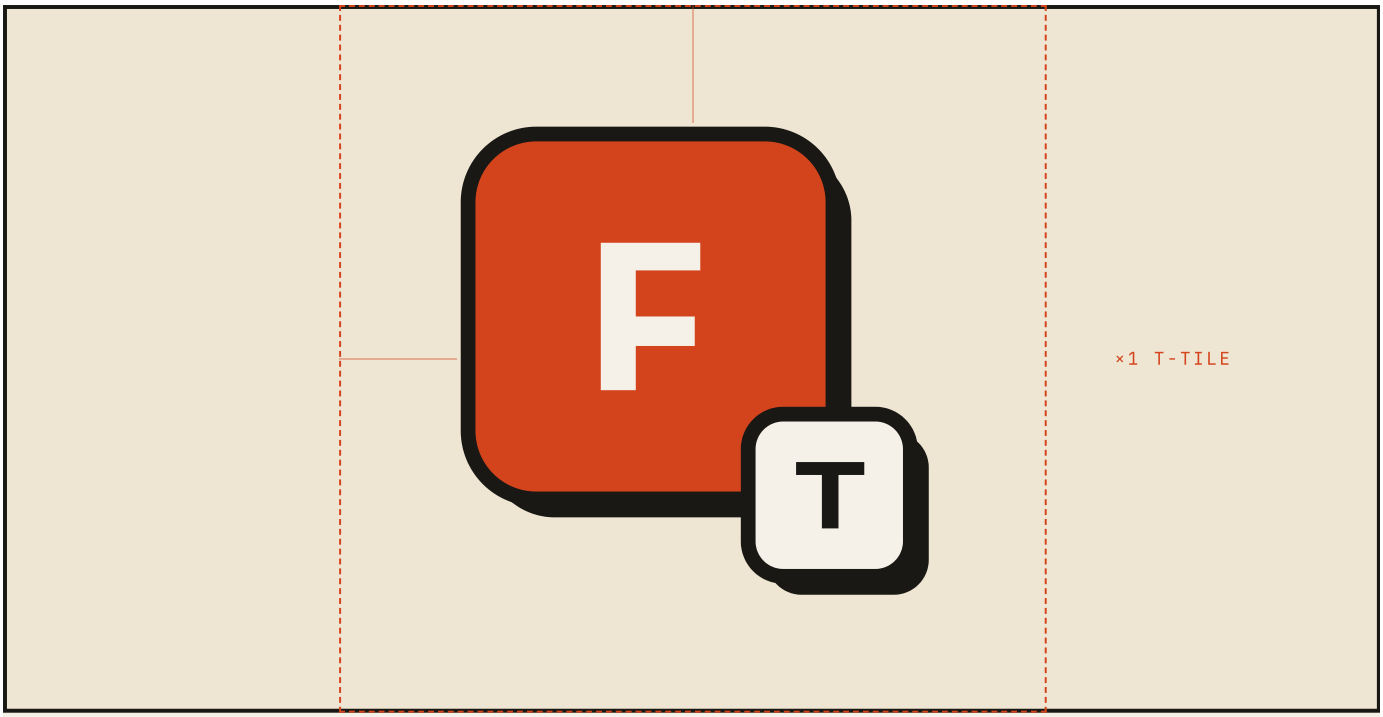
07 · Rules

Clearspace & misuse

Clearspace = the height of the small T-tile on every side. The mark earns its space; don't let other content crowd it.

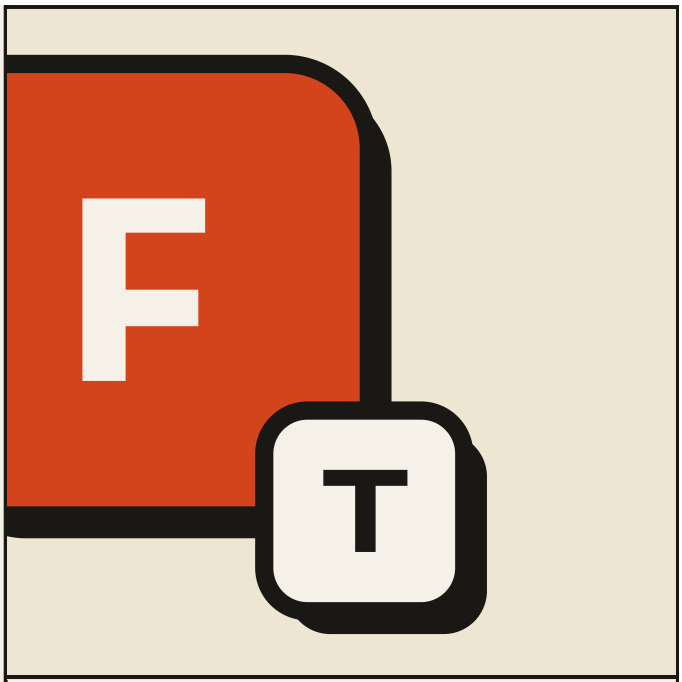
×1 T-TILE



✕ Don't skew or rotate

✕ Don't recolor the tile

✕ Don't put it on noisy backgrounds



✕ Don't crop or zoom past the bbox
